Fairmont

Has all the advantages as an industrial center that any other city in the State possesses, some that none of them have, and many that but few can lay claim to.

West Virginia

Is having a greater industrial growth than any other State in the Union. The Manufacturers Record says of our State: "There is greater diversification in manufacture where industrial centers are being developed, and altogether it would appear that an area of wealth production has been inaugurated that is well nigh limitless in possibilities and the end of which no man can see."

Have your friends come to Fairmont and share in the growth that must be ours.

FIRST WARD NOTES.

By Our Regular Correspondent.

E. A. S. Whitford, of Fifth street, returned last evening from Clarksburg, where he had gone on a brief business trip.

W. L. Boughner, of Morgantown, stopped off in the city last night en route home from Wheeling, where he was looking after personal interests.

Kelly & Martin have gone on a tour of inspection through the back counties for a few days, possibly in the interest of a business deal of some kind. They are both hustlers, who seldom spend their time and means for mere pleasure alone.

Unwelcome News.

A telegram was received by C. W. Levelle, of Diamond street, yesterday evening, announcing the serious illness of Mrs. Cella Hayes, of Farmington, and requesting the presence of his wife, who is the sister of Mrs. Hayes, who is not expected to live. Mrs. Levelle left this morning in answer to the call.

Ready For The Test.

Ezra Morgan, of Winfield district, was in the city yesterday and reports that his oil field in shape ready for the drillers who have entered into contract upon certain conditions, to make a thorough test of this new and hitherto untapped territory. From certain favorable indications many are sanguine of their success in finding oil, and are expecting the drillers on the field within the next few weeks.

Anticipated Pleasure.

Ethel Barnes, of East Park avenue, has issued cards of invitation for a party to be given at her home this evening from 8 to 11 o'clock. The young lads and lassies who have been honored with invitations, are keyed up to the highest tension in anticipation of a pleasant evening together.

Family Are Anxious.

Marcus Morgan, one of the older and highly esteemed citizens of Forksburg, is reported to be seriously ill and lying ground in the struggle for recovery. After a protracted illness during the autumn months he seemed to rally for a time but recently he has taken worse again, and by reason of his present condition his family and friends are feeling quite anxious as to the result.

Pleasant Surprise.

L. C. Arnett, of West Fairmont, formerly a mail carrier in the First ward, has been in the city for a visit with his family during the holidays. He returned to Elkins yesterday, where he is employed on the surveying corps for the coal and coke railroad, and is well pleased with both his employers and employment, as well he may be, for he reports a message received while here expressing him with the announcement that his wages will be increased $15 per month from the first of the year. We congratulate him on his success with best wishes for many more like surprises while in their employ.

Played Well Their Part.

Miss Grace Snyder, of Water street, and George Allard, late of New Castle, Pa., quietly rode away and were married at Oakland yesterday, returning to the city in the evening on 55, without arousing the suspicion of their nearest and most intimate friends of what had happened there. In their absence, they will remain here for a few days until they get used to the yoke that now couples them together, and then take up their residence in New Castle, the former home of the groom, but who has been employed as an electrician for Mayers for the past year and a half. Miss Snyder was one of the bright, popular young ladies of her set in the First ward, where she made her home with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Leonard for the past 15 years. She will be greatly missed therefore both in their home and the community, but the best wishes of her many friends will go with her to her new home, in the hope that all the surprises of her future life may be as joyous as the one so recently sprung upon them.

Of Interest to Clergymen.

Pursuant to its usual custom, the Western Maryland Railway Company will issue clerical orders for the year 1906 to regularly ordained clergymen, who are solely engaged in the work and duties of a minister of the gospel, having no other profession, occupation or business, located on or contiguous to the lines of this company.

As the West Virginia Central and Pittsburgh Railway has been merged under the name of the Western Maryland Railroad Company, orders for 1906 will be honored over this line and branches.

Application blanks can be secured from ticket agents, which upon being properly filled up, and certified to by some railroad agent, who is personally acquainted with the applicant, should be forwarded to the General Passenger Agent's office, Baltimore, Md., as soon as possible.

NEW YORK FASHIONS

Pattern For a Small Princess Dress Designed by Martha Dean—No. 4686

Mother is not the only one who can have fashionable gowns, but the tiny maid who brings so much of sunshine into the house must have them too. She need not take so vast a pleasure therein, but she does look a deal more bewitching. Here is a little princess gown with a round yoke extending down the front in staid fashion. Not alone the staid yoke makes the little dress attractive, but the embroidery which adorns it. A narrow edging of lace finishes the yoke and sleeves attractively, while three miniature tucks adorn the lower edge of the dress. The skirt part is gathered at the yoke, which gives it a graceful fullness. Nainsook, lawn, mull or chambray may be used as material for this dress and prove pleasing. If chambray is used the staid yoke may be made of all over embroidery. The pattern is very simple to make and will cause the least experienced dressmaker no difficulty. For a medium size, two and one-eighth yards of thirty-six inch material are needed. Six sizes, 1 to 6 years.

FARMINGTON.

Misses Hazel and Gladys Toothman, of Fairmont, were in town Sunday visiting their aunt, Mrs. Felix Roby. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hall, of Metz, spent Christmas with Mrs. Hall's mother, Mrs. John Dudley.

Mr. J. C. Cutright, of Hundred, was in a short time Christmas day calling on friends.

Mrs. Henry Dunley and children, of Niles, Ohio, are in town visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Lough.

Mr. B. J. Taylor was in Wheeling Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Guthrie were in Fairmont Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Pitzer were visiting Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Wells, Christiansburg.

The remains of Mr. Joe Sutton, of Harrison county, were brought here Sunday and taken to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Eliza Petty, and kept over night after which they were taken to Ames for burial.

Mr. Samuel Fletcher left Sunday afternoon for Cumberland where he is going to see some friends.

Henderson, the little son of Rev. and Mrs. Corder, who has been very ill for a few days, is able to be taken out again.

Master Robert Fletcher, who has been in Fairmont visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Madeline Fletcher, returned home Monday afternoon. Quite a nice entertainment was given at the Methodist Episcopal Church Monday evening. A good programme was rendered and after they were through with it they had a box filled with presents from friends which were distributed and a nice treat was given to the members of the school. Santa came in to amuse the children for a while.

The entertainment given Saturday evening by the pupils of the Laurel run school was well attended although the evening was bad. The patrons all came and quite a number of visitors were present also. After the programme was rendered they began guessing on the cakes. A fancy box of candy was to be given to the lucky one, but after one hundred and seventy-four guesses were made and no one guessed what the cakes contained they were cut and passed around among the crowd. One cake contained a small piece of lace and the other some sewing thread. They also had a doll baby to guess what its name was, but no one guessed the name which was Elaine. The proceeds which amounted to $19.04 went to establish a library for the school.
